Dear Dr Sharman

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) in relation to certain categories of Private Sector Workers

The WorkCover Tasmania Board has been directed to undertake a review of presumption in respect of PTSD in relation to certain categories of private sector workers. This review is to consider whether a rebuttable presumption for PTSD should apply to certain categories of private sector workers.

The Board has engaged ACIL Allen Consulting to coordinate stakeholder consultation. Consequently, I am writing to advise that ACIL Allen Consulting may make contact seeking input into this review.

Should you wish to discuss this matter or you require further information, please contact me on (03) 6166 4744 or email Mark.Cocker@justice.tas.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
